Église Baptiste Fondamentale à Boulwando

Since Dominique and his wife, Virginie, came into Ouagadougou to pastor the church in Dassago, the work in Boulwando has been without a preacher. We have prayed, asked you to pray, and have talked with the various young pastors about the possibilities in Boulwando. About three months ago, I approached Ferdinand about praying about becoming the pastor in Boulwando. He said he would and for three months he prayed about God's will in the matter. Three weeks ago, he told me that he truly felt the Lord would have him become the pastor in Boulwando. With the various activities continuing through the end of May, Ferdinand will assume the pastorate the 27th May, 2012, at the Fundamental Baptist Church of Boulwando. It is such a great blessing for him and for the church. He has such a meek and gentle spirit and is full of faith in the Lord's leadership in his life. Please continue to pray for this church and their new pastor.

Église Baptiste Fondamentale à Dassago

There are a couple of new things to report. Firstly, our daughter Beka, has started a teen Bible study on Saturday afternoons averaging about thirty teens each week. Several of the men have volunteered to help her and have even begun asking if they could begin to teach some of the lessons. Secondly, we have started a Church Campaign at the church; a nine week campaign that focuses on the fruit of the spirit. A total of five different pastors/missionaries have been preaching. We have had visitors in each service and several have made professions of faith, including Soumailia KABORE, who has started bringing his family members to church with him and has even joined the choir.

Thank you!

Thank you for standing with us here in Burkina Faso. It is a great honor to be representing you here. Words cannot express our gratefulness for your faithfulness to us and our ministries here. Thank you!
