Missionary Spotlight

Nolan & Janay LeTourneau—Missionaries to Uganda

While we may not fully understand the purpose for which God brought us back to the States from Uganda so soon, it has been amazing and humbling to see glimpses of His sovereign hand at work. Towards the end of February, doctors found a tumor on the left side of Nolan's abdomen. At that time, doctors were unsure if surgery was actually needed. Since then, the tumor has continued to grow, and doctors have recently found a second lump indicating the presence of a second tumor. We now know that surgery is an absolute need. Nolan had a consultation with the surgeon this month to learn the details of the needed surgery and get placed on the schedule. At this time, doctors are 80% sure the tumors are benign; however, nothing will be known for certain until they are removed and tested. We truly covet your prayers for this situation.

YOU MUST CHOOSE!

ROMANS 10

So Great a Salvation

HILLSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday, April 21, 2024

A common verse that we often display in our homes is Joshua 24:15. While we normally just showcase the end of the verse, “as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord” the rest of the verse bears consideration. Joshua calls the people to “choose you this day whom ye will serve...” He wants them choose whom they will follow. Some people have estimated that the average person makes 35,000 choices each day! Some are inconsequential, but some can be monumental!

On a normal Sunday, I made a monumental choice as a child to trust Christ as my Saviour, and my eternity was forever changed. A decision to attend youth camp yielded another decision to follow God's call in my life to be a pastor. Today, each of us will face choices. One such choice is whether or not to support our youth tonight at the dessert auction. This one decision could yield the fruit for another soul to be saved or to open the door for the next pastor of Hillside to surrender his life to the Lord's Will. You see, even small choices can have a lasting effect. So, “choose you this day whom you will serve.”
